WAYNE'S DIURETIC ELIXIR - OF

Buchu, Juniper and Acetate of Potash.

A new and valuable preparation for the relief and cure of Gravel, Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Dropsical, Rheumatic and Gouty affections, Pains in the back and loins, &c., &c.

To those suffering from diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, and the conse-quent train of distressing ailments, this remedy is confidently recommended as a relief, and needs but a trial to prove Its great value in the relief of the above mentioned discuses.

In confirmation of the above we present the following certificate of an old and well-known citizen of Lancaster:

LANCASTER, OHIO, December 20, 1869. MESSES. F. E. SUIRE & Co. Cincinnati, O. Messes. F. E. Suire & Co. Cincinnati, O.

"Gestlemen:—I am induced to give my testimony in favor of the Medicine you prepare called Wayne's Elixir of Buchu, Juniper and Arctate of Potash from the great beaefit I have derived from its use. For many years I have been suffering from an affection of the Kidneys and tried various remedies with at times some benefit from their use, but I had never received a perfect relief until I had used your medicine, which was recommended to me by Messes. Slocum & White, of this city, and I feel that it has almost produced a perfect cure in myself and can cheerfully recommend it to others suffering from a similar disease.

nacion Darby and Joan. When Daiby saw the setting sun, He swung his scythe and home he run-Sat down, drauk off his quart and said, "My work is done, I'll go to bed."
"My work is done!" retorted Joan, 'My work is done; your constant tone; Dat helpless woman ne'er can say Her work is done till Judgment Day. You men can steep all night, and we Must roll.? "Whose fault is that," quoth? "I know your meaning." Jean replied, Rut, sir, my tourne shall not be tied, I will go on, and let you know What work poor women have to do;

First, in the morning, though we feel As sick as drunkards as they mel,-Yes, feel such pains in back or head As would confine you men to bed-We ply the brush, we wield the broom; We air the beds and right the room; The cows must next be milk'd-and then We get the breakfast for the men. And bristly hair the children rise These must be dress'd and dos'd with rue, And fed-and all because of you. We next?-Here Darby scratched his head And stole of ambling to his bed; And only say won she run, "Zoundst woman's clack is never done." At early dawn, ere Phubus rose,

Old Joan resumed her tale of woes When Darby thus-"I'll end the strife, Be you the man and I the wife; Take you the scythe and mow, while I Will all your boasted cares supply." "Content," quoth Joan, "give me my stint This Darby did, and out she went. Old Darby rose and soiz'd the broom. And whirled the dirt about the room; Which having done he scarce knew how He hied to milk the brindled cow, The brindled cow whish'd round her tail The clown, perplexed with grief and pain, When turning round, in sad amaze Press'd by misfortunes and perplex'd, Darby prepared for breakfast next; But what to get he scarcely knew-The bread was spent, the butter too. His hands bedaub'd with paste and flour,

And, stembling onwards, with her snout O'erset the churn-the cream ran out. As Darby turn'd the sow to beat, The slipp'ry cream betrayed his feet: He caught the bread trough in his fall, And down came Darby, trough and all. The children, waken'd by the clatter, Start up and ery, "Oh! what's the matter!" Old Jowler barked, and Tabby mew'd, And hapless Darby bawl'd aloud, Return, my Joan, as heretofore, I'll play the housewife's part no more nce now, by sad experience taught, Compared to thine, my work is naught Content, the plough, the scythe, the rake, And never more transgress the line
